To Have Good Memories!

EDITORS' GOOF-OFF PAGE

It is not the student who need reformation it is the schools.

Where were you when the pages were blank?? It is ridiculous for any man to criticize the works of another if he has not distinguished himself by his own performances.

MAKING LIFE WORTH WHILE

May every soul that touches mine —

Be it the slightest contact —

Get therefrom some good;

Some little grace; one kindly thought;

One aspiration yet unfelt;

One bit of courage

For the darkening sky;

One gleam of faith

To brave the thickening ills of life;

One glimpse of brighter skies

Beyond the gathering mists —

To make this life worth while

And heaven a surer heritage.

MY SPIRIT WILL GROW UP

Some day my spirit will grow up tall and wise,
And then, stern Life, I shall no longer go
Cowardly running and crying from your blow.
Then I will face you with clear, earnest eyes
Smiling a little at your sharp surprise,
Unflinching from the threatened stroke, with no
Soft tremor to lighten your frown — when I shall grow
In spirit, some day, tall and strong and wise.
Then I will face you, it may be I shall laugh,
Not to disarm you, not to conclude our strife,
But joyous in my newly steadied will
That finds a comfort in thy rod and staff.
Then I will say: "You may hurt me, hurt me, Life, Hurt me your worst, and I will love you still!"

"Man's Mind And Not His Master Makes Him Slave."

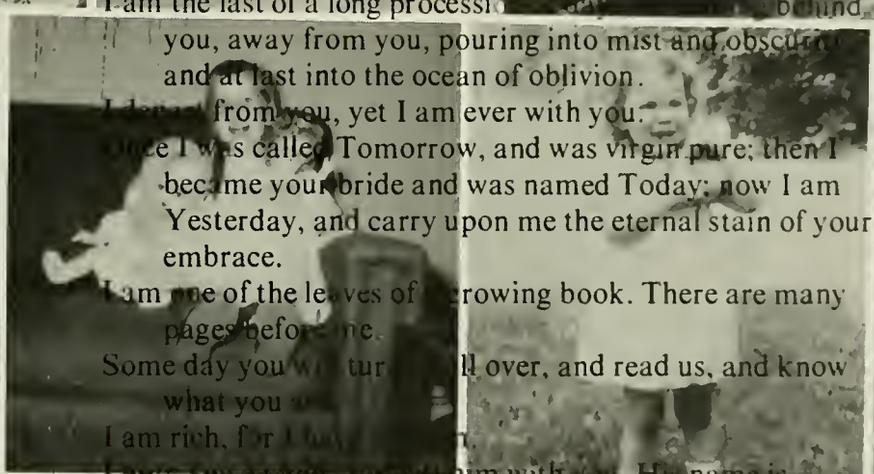
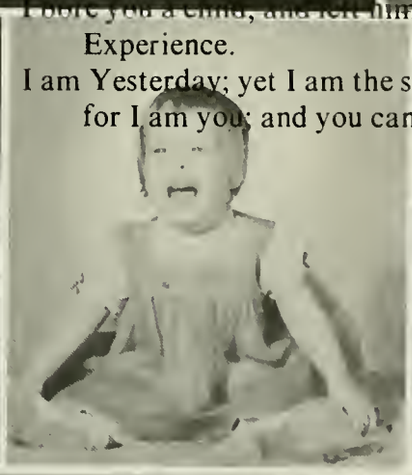
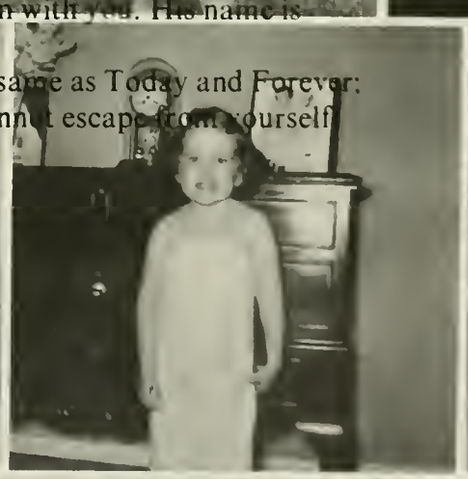
YESTERDAY

I am yesterday.
I am gone from you for ever.
I am the last of a long processi[illegible] behind you, away from you, pouring into mist and obscurity and at last into the ocean of oblivion.
I depart from you, yet I am ever with you.
Once I was called Tomorrow, and was virgin pure; then I became your bride and was named Today; now I am Yesterday, and carry upon me the eternal stain of your embrace.
I am one of the leaves of a growing book. There are many pages before me.
Some day you will turn [illegible] over, and read us, and know what you [illegible]
I am rich, for I have [illegible]
I bore you a child, and left him with you. His name is Experience.
I am Yesterday; yet I am the same as Today and Forever; for I am you; and you cannot escape from yourself.







That which is bitter to endure
may be sweet to remember

Jill Trevallion-President; Laura Olmstead-Secretary; Rusty Jones-Treasurer; Chris Sigler-Vice President.

Our thanks to Mr. Logan, our advisor, and the officers of the class of '73.

In Memory Of:

MINE

Why must it be
That they always tell me
The sky is the limit?

And why must it be
I must pay the fee
For things that
Are rightfully mine?

And why must it be
I must constantly flee
For all durtion
Of time?

David Todd Mold, '73

THOUGHT

If I could change anything in the world I would change people. I think people are the key to just about all the problems in one way or another. With some people there is hate because of the love in someone else. I'm not saying "Love, Love, Love, - I'm just saying that things could be much better if feelings were mutual among all people. If people would just support each other, there wouldn't be so many hassels. I know that this will probably never come true, but sometimes I think how much better it would be if it did.

David Todd Mold, '73

the thoughts of an

i've come into my activities
ignorant of the work lying ahead

have encountered many people

for some i will have a deep affection
while for others i can only hope they will have matured as much as i have this year

for once this year
i was hide and escape my troubles
